SCG INTERNATIONAL HIRES JODI SNYDER AS ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF SCG INTERNATIONAL LOGISTICS

Established shipping and transportation expert joins recently launched logistics division of security services company

VIRGINIA BEACH, VA, Mar.18, 2009 – SCG International, a U.S.-based global provider of fully integrated, domestic and international security services, today announced it has hired Jodi Snyder as assistant director of SCG International Logistics, a subsidiary of SCG International. Snyder will work directly with SCG clients to provide them with a full range of logistics services.

Prior to joining SCG, Snyder was manager of materials and logistics at Blackwater Aviation where she managed all aspects of procuring, inventory control, shipping and receiving as well as movement and placement of aircraft. Before joining Blackwater, Snyder spent 26 years at Piedmont/U.S. Airways where she worked in various positions handling inventory, cargo shipments and freight movement.

“Jodi brings to SCG an extensive international network of relationships accumulated during the course of almost three decades in the business,” said Jamie Smith, CEO of SCG International. “She has a reputation as one of the foremost experts in air freight, and has a strong track record in working with customers to meet their specific logistics needs.”

SCG recently announced its acquisition of Elite Packaging and Crating, and the hiring of its president, Tim Dodge, to run SCG International Logistics. Dodge brings more than 16 years of experience in shipping, inventory and logistics with extensive background in security-related matters. Dodge has specific expertise in the transport of hazardous materials and weapons, import/export regulations, warehouse management, customs procedures and international freight movement.
