

HUMINT-Human Intelligence Operations

This comprehensive five-day course is uniquely designed for Intelligence officers and special operations personnel tasked with conducting HUMINT (HUMAN INTelligence) operations worldwide.

The course is modeled after the Central Intelligence Agency's Field Tradecraft Course and taught by former Intelligence Officers and Special Operations personnel with experience ranging from the former Soviet Union to the present day global war on terror.

Course Length:	5 Days (60 hours)
Gear List:	Sent upon registration
Pre-requisites:	SCG Staff Approval
Clearances Required:	None
Class Size:	18 max (8 minimum)

Course Highlights

- Holding Clandestine Meetings (vehicles, buildings, etc)
- Entering / exiting / room set-up / meeting agenda
- Asset Pickup Techniques (Mobile / Static)
- Use of Disguise / Deception Techniques
- Surveillance Detection
- Designing Surveillance Detection Routes
- Using of Signals (Day / Night)
- Drops (Loading and Unloading)
- Hostile Recruitment of Assets / Agent Handling
- Tradecraft and HUMINT Operations
- Communications (Personal / Impersonal)
- Security at Meetings for the Intelligence Officer
- Working with Security Teams

Required Equipment

- Good quality handgun with four magazines and 500 rounds of ammunition
- Good quality belt holster and magazine holders
- Civilian clothing including Cover shirt (for concealing weapons, radios, etc.)
- Rain and cold-weather gear
- Hearing protection
- Wrap-around eye protection (clear eye protection for night work)
- Small flashlight of any type
- Small folding knife